

2009 KING ESTATE DOMAINE PINOT GRIS

Wine Enthusiast

91 POINTS - Editor's Choice

Done in 100% stainless steel and left sur lie for eight months, this intensely fruity, spicy Pinot Gris could be the archetype for the Oregon style. Bold pear fruit is set in citrusy acids and dotted with cinnamon spice. Fresh, crisp and full-bodied.

Since its introduction in 2003 Domaine Pinot Gris has been twice called 'the benchmark for the varietal' by Matt Kramer, renowned author, columnist, and Wine Spectator contributor

"Domaine pinot gris is many, many times better than any I've ever tasted."

- Doug Frost MS, MW

"This is Oregon pinot gris at the summit. It can't be put plainer than that."

- Matt Kramer
