Acrobat is artfully crafted every vintage in the gorgeous hills and valleys of western Oregon, with an eye on sustainable winemaking practices.

TASTING NOTES

The 2015 vintage is a brilliant example of Chardonnay from a consistent and warmer than average Western Oregon growing season. Visually, this has a lively yellow gold color. There are fresh aromas of squeezed lime juice, white peach and gooseberry. Focused and bright flavors like lemon zest and pineapple are immediately apparent, with a pleasant and racy acid balance in the mid-palate. This wine is clean and elegant from start to finish with layers of citrus and tropical fruit. Expect this wine to age beautifully through the next decade.

WINEMAKING PROCESS

The 2015 vintage was fermented in 100% stainless steel tanks, which were temperature controlled to maximize fruit character. This wine was then kept unoaked in stainless steel before bottling.

VINTAGE NOTES

2015 was the earliest harvest in Acrobat history. A dry, mild winter led to early bud break in mid to late March, about two weeks ahead of normal. With minimal frost damage to worry about during winter, there was an abundance of fruit set by early June. Warm temperatures throughout spring and summer kept the vines ahead of their seasonal average maturation while a slight reprieve from the heat arrived around harvest and helped to preserve acidity and allowed for optimal flavor development. Fruit came in perfectly ripe having benefited from extended hang time.
