

Viticulture Technician

Job Title: Viticulture Technician
Directly reporting to: Vineyard Manager
Duration of Job: Full time, Permanent

JOB SUMMARY

The Viticulture Technician will be responsible for obtaining and recording pruning weights. This individual will also collect and perform soil and tissue tests, cluster counts, cluster weights, and fruit samples. He or She will make observations and take measurements of vine and fruit growth development. The Viticulture Technician will conduct and record field experiments. This individual will report general conditions of the vineyard blocks to the Vineyard Manager. The other responsibilities may include driving tractors and trucks, entering general data, ordering supplies, and helping crews when needed during harvest pruning and the rest of the growing season.

Supervisory Responsibilities:

- No supervisory responsibilities

Essential Job Functions:

- Obtaining and recording pruning weights
- Collecting and performing soil and tissue tests, cluster counts, cluster weights and fruit samples
- Conduct and record field experiments
- Various Vineyard work during times of need

Requirements:

- Degree in viticulture, plant science or related field
- Previous vineyard work experience
- Ability to work outdoors in both cool and hot temperatures
- Agility, walking on uneven ground, bending and crouching to collect samples or hooking up equipment
- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to follow directions, prioritize, and manage time effectively
- Availability to work overtime and weekends if necessary

Special Note: Agriculture not subject to time and a half for overtime